BRAVE STUDENTS.

They Rally to Ex-Queen Natalie's Rescue and Put Her Reluctantly Abductors to Flight.

BERLIN, May 19.—The prefect of this city, who was charged by the regents with the duty of expelling ex-Queen Natalie from Serbian territory, went to the latter's residence yesterday and in spite of her earnest protests, compelled her to enter a carriage which drove toward the quay on the Danube, where the royal yacht was moored.

The news that the ex-queen was really to be expelled from Serbia had, in the meantime, spread throughout Belgrade and had reached the students' quarters. The latter promptly turned out in force, and as the carriage containing the unhappy lady was being driven toward the Danube, it was surrounded by a crowd of students, who seized the horses' heads, brought the vehicle to a standstill and loudly cheered the royal prisoner.

The latter promptly turned out in force, and as the carriage containing the unhappy lady was being driven toward the Danube, it was surrounded by a crowd of students, who seized the horses' heads, brought the vehicle to a standstill and loudly cheered the royal prisoner.

The prefect, assisted by a force of gendarmes, tried in vain to regain possession of the ex-queen and several collisions took place between the gendarmes and the students.

The regents are anxiously discussing the next step to take, as it is evident that a serious popular disturbance may be caused by any hasty action on their part, now that it is evident that the ex-queen is not so friendless as some people supposed.

The ex-queen had been taken back to her residence by the students the night before last and the ministers were still in session.

The citizens and merchants generally, who are in favor of the ex-queen, are of the opinion that the ex-queen is not so friendless as some people supposed.

A conflict occurred yesterday afternoon, troops firing upon the queen's supporters, who were gathered in the city square. The prefect, who was in the city square, was also shot.

SHAKESPEAREAN READING.

The Mayor of New Orleans Requests the Recall of the Italian Consul—The Letter Has Outraged His Countrymen.

NEW ORLEANS, May 18.—Mayor Shakespeare has addressed the following letter to Gov. Nicholls:

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, FRANCIS T. NICHOLLS, GOVERNOR OF LOUISIANA:

MATURITY OF NEW ORLEANS, CITY HALL, May 18, 1901.—Under date of May 18, 1901, your excellency was informed of the fact that I had addressed to you, Mr. Nicholls, a letter in which I expressed my regret that I was unable to attend the grand jury trial in session, a very remarkable letter. The evening of the day on which it was written the consul sent copies of the letter by the hands of his secretary to the daily press for publication. I enclose a printed copy of that letter.

Your excellency, being a resident in New Orleans, is fully aware of the fact that ever since the assassination of Superintendent of Police Hennessey on October 18, 1890, the papers have teemed with all manner of vapors and rumors, through his own acts, and his utterances, he has been a constant source of trouble to the city.

It is as an Italian consul, Mr. Cortis, has ever been a source of trouble to the city. His utterances have been a constant source of trouble to the city. His utterances have been a constant source of trouble to the city.
